Electronic Transmission, Fax/Email Authorization:

By completing and submitting this application, I hereby authorize NJESA to send me pertinent association and industry information via fax transmission at all fax numbers and via e-mail at all e-mail addresses or by other electronic transmission means listed on this application. I recognize that such documents include, but are not limited to: billing statements, registration forms, NJESA and ESA member communications and official letters. I understand that granting this permission is essential to the association's ability to communicate with me effectively.

Privacy Policy:

NJESA does not collect any personal identifying information about you unless you specifically and knowingly provide such information. Contact information provided to NJESA may be used to send information about NJESA or ESA programs, events, opportunities, or other useful information. NJESA may share contact information with associate members and other companies that offer NJESA member benefits and programs. NJESA will not share contact information with any other company, group, or organization that is not affiliated with the association for the sole intent of using such information for marketing purposes.

Standards of Conduct

Purpose

These Standards of Conduct are to provide guidance for member companies in conducting their activities in the spirit of honesty toward consumers, specifically with integrity and fair competition. Adherence to this Code will promote best practices which foster consumer protection, and also preserve the integrity and reputation of the entire electronic life safety and security industry.

Representative Defined

The term "Representative" includes employees, independent contractors, agents, dealers, dealer networks, associates, and other entities and individuals who market or sell electronic life safety and security products and services on behalf of a Member, regardless of the underlying legal arrangement between the Member and the Representative. The term Representative is to be construed broadly and Members may not structure arrangements with third parties for the purpose of circumventing the Code with respect to the accounts serviced or owned by a Member.

For example, but in no way limiting the definition of a Representative, a Member may not agree to purchase accounts from a non-member for the purpose of acquiring accounts that were not generated in conformance with the Code. Similarly, a Member may not disclaim a legal relationship with a Representative or other third party for the purpose of circumventing the Code.

Publication

The Association will publicize the existence of this Code. Members are encouraged to advertise compliance to this Code, and to make customers and potential customers aware of such compliance.

Acknowledgement

Each member shall certify to the Association that they have read and understand the Code of Ethics and Standards of Conduct and, by virtue of remittance of membership dues, are in compliance with the Code of Ethics and these Standards of Conduct.

Compliance

Members shall implement an effective program for complying with this Code which includes adopting and enforcing appropriate policies and procedures to prevent activities proscribed by this Code. Compliance programs should include (a) conducting effective and ongoing training and education of all Representatives on the requirements of this Code, (b) maintaining processes to effectively collect and investigate complaints alleging violations of this Code, (c) responding promptly to all such complaints and undertaking corrective actions, and (d) enforcing this Code through appropriate internal disciplinary procedures and actions.

Prompt Investigation

If any consumer alleges that a Representative offering the products or services of a Member has engaged in improper conduct, the Member shall promptly investigate the allegation. If a violation of this Code is identified, the Member shall appropriately discipline the offending Representative, and take further steps, as necessary, to address the consumer's concerns.

Complete text of the Code of Ethics and Standard of Conduct can be found on the NJESA website www.nj-esa.org or by contacting NJESA at 1-(609)-695-4444.

The undersigned represents all information submitted is accurate; false information may result in denial or revocation of membership. If approved, the undersigned agrees to comply with the NJESA bylaws, Standards of Conduct, code of ethics and antitrust statement. NJESA may deny membership regardless of any payments submitted.
